35thnorth We will be opening up sometime soon but for now we are just feeling so fortunate to be on this block, in this city. For the last 9 days we have been surrounded by voices of inspiration, education, passion, and love as thousands peacefully demand meaningful and lasting change in our society. We thank these voices and encourage everyone to come listen, along with using their own in support. Things don't change until they are made to change. #blacklivesmatter ❤️ you Seattle.
